

If you suffer with arthritis, medical help is now nearby.

Osteoarthritis or Rheumatoid Arthritis? Ask our experts.

Phoebe Rheumatology specialists will begin seeing patients in Americus on the second and fourth Tuesday each month.

James L. Perruquet, M.D. is board certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine, Rheumatology and the American Board of Internal Medicine. He earned his medical degree from the Hahnemann Medical College in Philadelphia, PA. He completed his internship, residency and fellowship at Geisinger Medical Center.

Nilofer Ahsan, M.D. is board certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine, Rheumatology and the American Board of Internal Medicine. She completed her Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery degree at the Bhagalpur Medical College in Bhagalpur, India. She completed her residency in internal medicine at Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center in Plainfield, NJ and requirements as a Fellow in Rheumatology at the Albert Einstein Medical Center in Philadelphia, PA.

Though they have similar symptoms, Osteoarthritis (OA) and rheumatoid arthritis (RA) have very different causes, paths of progression and treatments. That's why it's so important to see a rheumatologist for an accurate diagnosis.

Our rheumatologists specialize in the treatment of the joints, muscles and bones.

If you suffer from arthritis, we can help.

And we're making it more convenient for you.

June 9, we'll begin seeing patients right here at Sumter Regional Medical Center in Americus.

Ask your physician to refer you today and begin your journey to reduce pain and stiffness and help control your disease's progression.

 PHOEBE RHEUMATOLOGY

Accepting new patients by referral only. 229-312-7800
